

"BET MY DAD CAN LICK YOUR DAD!"

Jess Willard, Jr., infant son of the new champion of the world. Young Jess is the only boy of the Willard family of four. He is 16 months old, and, judging by the sturdy build of him now, will uphold the fistic prowess of his daddy when he grows big enough to wield a pair of gloves. He's practicing on his sisters now—without gloves.

MRS. MEYERS FOUND DEAD

Mrs. Samuel J. Meyers, wife of bankrupt clothing merchant who suicided, died suddenly Monday morning. Last night the coroner's chemist, after an exhaustive analysis, found that she had died from arsenic poisoning.

Detectives have been assigned to the case to find out whether she was poisoned by an enemy or committed suicide because she was hounded by her husband's creditors.

Mrs. Meyer was the sister-in-law of Mrs. Geo. Bernstein who was tried and acquitted of the murder of her husband who was shot May 4, 1912. The Meyers helped to finance the prosecution of Mrs. Bernstein.
